

'Jharsuguda Adarsh Airport: AAI Chairman'

The address started with greetings from Odisha and greetings from Jharsuguda. Union Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia applauded and applauded. Afterwards, Scindia enchanted the thousands of spectators by reciting verses in Oriya, asking for the people's happiness and sorrow. The audience present in Oriya asked 'how are you'.

The Jharsuguda and Darbhanga airports are the two best airports in the country since the launch of the flight plan, the minister said. Speaking at a rally in Jharsuguda today, the minister said that before the Modi government came to power, there were only 34 airports in the country. Which has so far reached 136. A record number of airports will be operational in the coming days, he said.

But the minister was outraged that everyone called the airport a VSS airport. So he joined hands and requested that the airport be renamed Bir Surendra Sai Airport. It will be our tribute to that great revolutionary.

On this occasion, he paid tribute to the heroic soil of Odisha. Jharsuguda and Sambalpur are said to be the soil of heroes, the soil of sacrifice. Two Oriya IAS officers were behind the success of the flight plan. The minister shook his head and said, "The rescue squad wasn't called for him."

Jharsuguda is a power house in Odisha. If any industry in the country is not affiliated with Jharsuguda, it is not an industry. Jharsuguda has a treasure trove of art and culture. He is from Ulapgarh, or he is from Koilighughar. "There is a shadow of this cultural and artistic soil," he said.
